NANOSMAT USA Conference 2012

The NANOSMAT Conference begins March 28th. The NANOSMAT conference, which will take place at USF in late March, has registrants from the following countries: India, Russia, United Arab Emirates, Brazil, Japan, Malaysia, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Iran, Argentina, China, Egypt, France, South Korea, Czech Republic, Germany, South Africa, Spain, Colombia, Mexico, Portugal, Tunisia, Poland, Romania, United Kingdom, Taiwan, Pakistan, Australia, Lithuania, Thailand, Sweden, Belarus, Bulgaria, Canada and USA.

All NANOSMAT registrants will be permitted to attend the USF Technology and Innovation Forum: Nanotechnology at no additional cost, and I believe we can expect that many will attend. Hosted in the USF Marshall Center, this USF Technology and Innovation Forum on Nanotechnology will have both a live audience of hundreds and others joining us by live webcast. Both academic and industry participants from around the globe (Japan, Russia, Australia, Germany, France, the UK) will be tuning in to the live webcast.
